The parties, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. Scope of Services. Contractor agrees to undertake and complete the software development services to Contractee in accordance with and on the schedule specified in Appendix A (the "Services"), as an independent contractor, for the benefit of the Contractee.

2. Term. The term of this Agreement shall begin on September 1st, 2025 (the "Commencement Date") and continue until terminated in accordance with Section 11 hereof.

3. Compensation. As the only consideration due to Contractor regarding the subject matter of this Agreement, Contractee will pay the Contractor for the Services as set forth in Appendix A.

4. Expenses and Equipment. The Contractor shall furnish, at its own expense, all basic labor, materials, equipment, supplies and other items necessary to carry out the terms of this Agreement (the "Equipment"), unless otherwise approved by Contractee.

5. Relationship of Parties.

    a. Relationship of the Parties. The Contractor is an independent contractor and has the right to control and direct the details of the Services; the Contractee is only interested in the results obtained. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Contractor, and not Contractee, shall determine the manner and means by which Contractor performs the Services, the location of the performance of the Services and the schedule on which the Services are performed. Unless otherwise specified herein, Contractor shall be responsible for providing all necessary supplies, materials and equipment required for the performance of the Services. Notwithstanding any provision hereof, for all purposes of this Agreement each party shall be and act as an independent contractor and not a partner, joint venturer, or agent of the other and shall not bind nor attempt to bind the other to any contract. Contractor shall bear sole responsibility for all acts and omissions of Contractor's personnel, if any. Contractor shall bear sole responsibility for payment of compensation to its personnel, if any. Contractor shall withhold (if applicable), pay and report, for all personnel assigned to the Services, federal, state and local income tax withholding, social security taxes, employment head taxes, unemployment insurance, and any other taxes or charges applicable to such personnel, if any. Contractor shall bear sole responsibility for any health or disability benefits, retirement benefits, or welfare, pension or other benefits (if any) to which such personnel may be entitled. Contractor agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Contractee, Contractee's officers, directors, employees and agents, affiliates, any benefit plan sponsored by the Contractee, and any fiduciaries or administrators of any such benefit plan, from and against any claims, liabilities, or expenses relating to any claim by Contractor's personnel for compensation, tax, insurance, or benefits from the Contractee or any benefit plan sponsored by the Contractee. Although the actual performance and supervision of all Services shall be by the Contractor, the Services performed by the Contractor must ultimately meet the approval of the Contractee. Therefore, the Contractee shall have a general right of approval, in its sole discretion, of the satisfactory performance and completion of the Services

b. Delegation of Work. The services provided for herein shall be performed by the Contractor, and no other person. The Contractor shall not hire any other person, including, but not limited to, the employees of the Contractee, to perform any portion of the work or services provided herein, including, but not limited to, secretarial, clerical, routine mechanical and similar incidental services, without the prior written approval of the Contractee.

c. Nondisparagement. Contractor and Contractee agree not to, at any time (whether during or after the term of this Agreement), publish or communicate to any person or entity any Disparaging (as defined below) remarks, comments or statements concerning the Contractor or Contractee, its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective present and former members, partners, directors, officers, shareholders, employees, agents, attorneys, successors and assigns. "Disparaging" remarks, comments or statements are those that impugn the character, honesty, integrity or morality or business acumen or abilities in connection with any aspect of the operation of business of the individual or entity being disparaged.

d. Non-Compete. During the term of this Agreement, the Contractor shall not, directly or indirectly: (i) in any manner whatsoever engage in any capacity with any business competitive with the Business for the Contractor's own benefit or for the benefit of any person other than Contractee; or (ii) have any interest as owner, sole proprietor, shareholder, partner, director, officer, employee, consultant, agent or otherwise in any business competitive with the Business; provided, however, the Contractor may hold, directly or indirectly, solely as an investment, not more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding securities of any person which are listed on any national securities exchange or regularly traded in the over-the-counter market. For the purposes of this Agreement, "Business" means technology consulting and software development.

e. Non-Solicitation of Employees. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year following the termination of this Agreement for any reason (the "Restricted Period"), the Contractor shall not hire or, directly or indirectly, initiate communications with, solicit, persuade, entice, induce or encourage any individual who is then or who has been within the preceding twelve (12)-month period, an employee of Contractee or any of its subsidiaries and affiliates to terminate employment with Contractee, or such subsidiary or affiliate, as the case may be, or to become employed by or enter into a contract or other agreement with any other person, and the Contractor shall not approach any such employee for any such purpose or authorize or knowingly approve the taking of any such actions by any other person.

f. Non-Solicitation of Clients. During the Restricted Period, the Contractor shall not directly or indirectly (i) solicit or attempt to solicit or induce, directly or indirectly, any party who is a customer or client of the Contractee or who was a customer or client of the Contractee within the preceding twelve (12)-month period, for the purpose of marketing, selling or providing to any such party any services or products offered by or available from the Contractee or (ii) encourage any customer or client of the Contractee to terminate or reduce its business relationship with the Contractee.

   a. Ownership. Contractee shall own all right, title and interest (including patent rights, copyright rights, trade secret rights, mask work rights, trademark rights, sui generis database rights and all other rights of any sort throughout the world) relating to any and all inventions (whether or not patentable), works of authorship, mask works, designations, designs, know-how, ideas and information made or conceived or reduced to practice, in whole or in part, by Contractor in connection with the Services or any Proprietary Information (as defined below) (collectively, "Inventions") and Contractor will promptly disclose and provide all Inventions to Contractee. Contractor hereby makes and agrees to make all assignments necessary to accomplish the foregoing ownership. Contractor shall further assist Contractee, at Contractee's expense, to further evidence, record and perfect such assignments, and to perfect, obtain, maintain, enforce and defend any rights assigned. Contractor hereby irrevocably designates and appoints Contractee and its agents as attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Contractor's behalf to execute and file any document and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the foregoing with the same legal force and effect as if executed by Contractor. If any part of the Services or Inventions is based on, incorporates, or is an improvement or derivative of, or cannot be reasonably and fully made, used, reproduced, distributed, modified, commercialized or otherwise exploited (collectively, "Exploited" or "Exploitation") without using or violating technology or intellectual property rights owned or licensed by Contractor and not assigned hereunder, Contractor hereby grants Contractee and its successors a perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide royalty-free, nonexclusive, sublicensable right and license to fully Exploit and exercise all such technology and intellectual property rights in support of Contractee's exercise or Exploitation of the Services, Inventions, other work performed hereunder or any assigned rights (including any modifications, improvements and derivatives of any of the foregoing). Contractor agrees that all Inventions and all other business, technical and financial information (including, without limitation, the identity of and information relating to customers or employees) that Contractor or anyone acting on Contractor's behalf develops, learns or obtains in connection with the Services or that are received by or for Company in confidence, constitute "Proprietary Information." Furthermore, Contractor understands that this Agreement does not affect Contractor's immunity under 18 USC Sections 1833(b) (1) or (2), which read as follows:

      i (1) An individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

      ii (2) An individual who files a lawsuit for retaliation by an employer for reporting a suspected violation of law may disclose the trade secret to the attorney of the individual and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if the individual (A) files any document containing the trade secret under seal; and (B) does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

   As additional protection for Inventions and Proprietary Information, and to confirm Contractor's performance in accordance with this Agreement, upon Contractee's request, Contractee may audit Contractor's telecommunications, networking or information processing systems (including, without limitation, stored computer files, e-mail messages and voice messages).

In addition, the Contractor agrees to hold as the Contractee's property, all memoranda, books, papers, letters, and all other data in whatever medium, and all copies thereof and therefrom, in any way relating to the Contractee's business and affairs, whether made by Contractor or otherwise coming into Contractor's possession or
