SUMMARY

As a student of Communication Sciences at UBA, I combine my academic background with extensive experience in interpretation in English and Spanish. My work in interpretation, along with my analytical skills and deep understanding of communication processes, highlights my passion for effective communication and my commitment to delivering high-quality services.
I thrive on collaborating with others and helping them reach their potential, as evidenced by my experience in training future interpreters. I am eager to grow and contribute in a dynamic environment where I can apply my knowledge, advance professionally, and continue to excel in my career, personal, and intellectual pursuits.
