Antonella is an extremely engaging and resourceful student. She has a solid grasp of grammatical structures and can express herself with a high level of fluency and pleasing confidence. End of week test scores have been consistently of a high standard. Over the course she has also built up a broad range of vocabulary, working in particular on idiom and collocation so that she is increasingly able to express herself naturally and to good effect.

Her stay in Cambridge has given her the opportunity to satisfy her enthusiasm for British life and culture and to verify for herself just how successfully she can express her ideas in English in a variety of contexts.

She has participated with interest and enthusiasm in all class discussions, interacting easily with students from all over the world. She has been generous in the way in which she has shared her ideas and opinions and has been a popular member of the class.

It has been a great pleasure to meet and work with her.
