PepsiCo Beverages North America

With roots dating back to 1898, PepsiCo Beverages North America (PBNA) is one of the largest beverage companies in North America today, generating more than $27 billion in net revenue in 2023.

PepsiCo Foods North America

In 1932, Herman W. Lay began a potato chip business in Nashville, Tennessee. Not long after, he purchased the manufacturer and formed H.W. Lay & Company. In 1961, the company merged with the Frito Company, becoming Frito-Lay Inc.
In 1965, Frito-Lay Inc. merged with Pepsi-Cola to form PepsiCo.

Quaker Foods North America

Quaker Oats registered as the first trademark for a breakfast cereal in 1877. In 1888, seven of the largest American oat millers—including the Consolidated principals—united as the American Cereal Company, and in 1901 American Cereal changed its name to The Quaker Oats Company. Inspired by the wholesome goodness of the humble oat, Quaker has been the leading expert in oats and committed to making oats delicious and convenient by developing everything from breakfast items to snacks to tasty recipe ideas.
