

Fernando José Rossi Seifert

Law student

Profile

I am a passionate law student with a keen interest in public international law and international relations. My goals are to gain experience and train myself in the formation of proposals, development and defense of public policies, both in the parliamentary field and in international relations. Also put into practice the theoretical knowledge acquired to perform tasks that challenge the achievement of the objective sought.

Employment History

Paralegal at Maglex Law Firm, Buenos Aires

June 2016 — June 2018

I served as a paralegal before the General Inspection of Justice (IGJ), Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Worship and the National Justice in Civil and Commercial Affairs. I was also in charge of writing various documents as well as research tasks.

Education

Bachelor of Laws, University of Buenos Aires, Buenos Aires

March 2015 — December 2020

I expect to obtain my law degree by the end of 2020, specializing in public international law.

Internships

Intern at Konrad Adenauer Foundation, Bogotá

January 2019 — April 2019

I carried out various functions, among which are: research, preparation, review and translation of documents; development of own projects and monitoring of third-party projects; administrative tasks and organizational.

Courses

Youth for Justice Meeting of the State of Law for Latin America Program, Konrad Adenauer Foundation

September 2018 — September 2018

Extra-curricular activities

Electoral control at group of independent controllers, Pilar

August 2011 — Present

I participate since 2011 in all electoral cycles as a controller, together with a group of non-political citizens. We develop our tasks in the departments of Pilar, Escobar and Moreno and have worked with several political parties.
